Theology of the Real Presence of the Eucharist:

By Audrey Tokarz

Did you know that...Augustine's conviction of Christ's Real Presence is expressed widely throughout his body of works, but he tends to treat it as if it were self-evident rather than making a case to defend it to his contemporaries. Nevertheless, his own certainty of this fact, and a demonstration of the concrete depth of that belief, may be sufficiently seen in these words from his Sermon 131:

"Eat Christ, then; though eaten He yet lives... Nor do we divide Him into parts when we eat Him... eaten in parts in the Sacrament, He remains whole and entire in Heaven."

Augustine's focus on the spiritual and symbolic nature of the Eucharist was well received partly due to the fact that there was an "absence of any heretical counter-proposition" that would lend to the misinterpretation of such a focus as excluding an authentic respect for the Real Presence. It is only through the fact that the Church is the Body of Christ that this understanding of the Eucharist as her own sacrifice makes sense because Christ is truly present in the sacrament of the altar and "the Church can never be anything other than the whole Christ, head and members." The appreciation for this balance was lost during the Eucharistic Controversy, a period of intense theological debate that began around the ninth century. To read the entire article, click on the link from our website's Eucharist Revival resource page (accessible from home page banner and Parish life).

What is the Mission of the Eucharist Revival?

To renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

Upcoming Events

FIRST READING

Acts 4:32-35

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118

R. Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

1 John 5:1-6

Beloved:

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one that testifies, and the Spirit is truth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
