Reflection on St. Mary Magdalene

Feast Day July 22nd

As the patroness of contemplative life, converts, glove makers, hair dressers, penitent sinners, people ridiculed for their piety, perfumeries, pharmacists, sexual temptation, tanners, and women, St. Mary Magdalene stands as one of the notable saints and an example of God's mercy and grace. The Gospels agree that Mary Magdalene was a great sinner caught up in the culture and the world of the Gentiles. Upon meeting Jesus, He cast seven demons out of her, freeing her from her sinful lifestyle. She began following Christ very soon after and was a prominent character during His life, death, and resurrection. Walking with Christ, she witnessed Christ's teachings and works first hand. At His death, she stood at a distance watching Our Lord in His greatest act of love. Visiting the tomb to anoint Christ's body, she found the tomb empty, and was the first to encounter Christ resurrected. After the events of Christ's resurrection, not much is known other than a legend where she remained with the early Christians, journeyed with John to Ephesus, and eventually departed to southern France, where she spent the rest of her years.

What can we learn from St. Mary Magdalene? We lead busy lives in a world full of joy, but also temptations. Mary Magdalene is a great example for us in concurring temptation and choosing to follow Christ. Just like many of us, she fell into a sinful lifestyle, to the point where she had seven demons possessing her. In God's saving and merciful power, Christ entered into Mary's life, freeing her, just as He wishes to do for us. Pope Gregory I's words on St. Mary Magdalene encapsulates it the best:

"She whom Luke calls the sinful woman, whom John calls Mary, we believe to be the Mary from whom seven devils were ejected according to Mark. What did these seven devils signify, if not all the vices? It is clear, that the woman previously used the unguent to perfume her flesh in forbidden acts. What she therefore displayed more scandalously, she was now offering to God in a more praiseworthy manner. She had coveted with earthly eyes, but now through penitence these are consumed with tears. She displayed her hair to set off her face, but now her hair dries her tears. She had spoken proud things with her mouth, but in kissing the Lord's feet, she now planted her mouth on the Redeemer's feet. For every delight, therefore, she had had in herself, she now immolated herself. She turned the mass of her crimes to virtues, in order to serve God entirely in penance."— Pope Gregory I (homily XXXIII), Carroll 2006

Mary followed and adored Christ because of what He did for her. Moved by the act of love, she told other women of the wonders God has worked for her. Is it not the same for us, when we experience God's love, that we are excited to share of the encounter with others? As the faithful, we join together at mass to give thanks and join in the one continual sacrifice Jesus offers to the Father; We join with Mary Magdalene watching Christ offer himself on the cross. We join Mary in proclaiming the Lord's Resurrection. When we adore Christ in Eucharistic Adoration, we join Mary Magdalene in her act of adoration when Christ reveals himself resurrected.

While we may not have the same affliction St. Mary Magdalene had, we are able to look on how God has worked in our lives in a similar way. So, like St. Mary Magdalene, let's take some time to notice how God has been active and present in our life, choose to adore Christ just as Mary did, and move forward with hope that God will do so much more for us.

St. Mary Magdalene, pray for us.

OPENING HYMN

Hymn of Mary Magdalene

From the highest heights of glory, 'mid the sweets of endless calm, Mary's spirit in it's rapture on the earth is dropping balm on the bosom of the Savior; Like a flower of stainless white lies the trophy of his mercy in a blaze of heav'nly light.

*Queen of penitents and of fervor! Thou art martyr, too, of love;
and thy likeness to thy Savior makes the angels glad above.
There are thousands in all ages come to Christ because of thee;
O, then Mary, with thy converts in thy kindness number me.*

And yet thou, too, once were wand'ring, once were soiled with darkest stains, who art now the fairest blossom in the land where Jesus reigns; Thou were wretched, thou were drooping, thou were crushed upon the earth, who are greater now, and grander than an angel in his mirth!

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, [All strike their breast] through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

FIRST READING

Song 3:1-4b

The Bride says: / On my bed at night I sought him / whom my heart loves- / I sought him but I did not find him. / I will rise then and go about the city; / in the streets and cross-ings I will seek / Him whom my heart loves. / I sought him but I did not find him. / The watchmen came upon me, / as they made their rounds of the city: / Have you seen him whom my heart loves? / I had hardly left them / when I found him whom my heart loves.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Mode 8 Ps 63 (62): 2-L

My soul is thirst-ing for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READING

2 Cor 5: 14-17

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

VI

A L-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

*Tell us, Mary, what did you see on the way?
"I saw the glory of the risen Christ, I saw his empty tomb."*

GOSPEL

Jn 20: 1-2, 11-18

On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him."

Mary stayed outside the tomb weeping. And as she wept, she bent over into the tomb and saw two angels in white sitting there, one at the head and one at the feet where the Body of Jesus had been. And they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken my Lord, and I don't know where they laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus there, but did not know it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" She thought it was the gardener and said to him, "Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you laid him, and I will take him." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni," which means Teacher. Jesus said to her, "Stop holding on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and tell them, 'I am going to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and then reported what he told her.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN

Attende Domine

St. Mary Magdalene is known in the Church as queen of penitents.

As we celebrate her today, let us also call to mind our own brokenness, and call upon the Lord for forgiveness for our sins, as did our Patroness and all the Saints. May he make us whole by his mercy and through the gift of this Holy Eucharist.

Verse translations:

Weeping, and lifting up our eyes to you, Lord,
Majesty sov'reign, everyone's Redeemer.
Hear, Christ, the sinners pleading for your mercy.

Near to the Father, Keystone at his right hand,
Way of salvation, Gateway into heaven,
Cleanse us in mercy from our sins' dishonor.

O God, we beg you, Majesty eternal,
Turn, Lord your sacred ears to hear our groanings,
Peacefully lenient, pardon our offenses.

Humbly confessing all our willed offenses,
We admit freely secret, hidden sinning,
So that your love, Lord, may grant us redemption.

Innocent captive, held without resistance.
Doomed by faithless, charged by lying witnesses,
Christ, keep us safely. You are our Redeemer.

SMM BUILDING PRAYER

All-powerful and all-merciful Father, you have created all things through your Son, and have made him the unshakable foundation of your Kingdom. Through the gift of your eternal wisdom, grant that our effort to build the parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, for your glory and our own well-being, may progress day by day to its successful completion. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Lift Your Voice, Rejoicing, Mary (HYMN TO JOY)

Lift your voice, rejoicing, Mary,
Christ has risen from the tomb;
on the cross a suffering victim,
now as victor he is come.

Whom your heart in death was mourning,
at whose feet your tears did flow:
He who calls your name, the Master,
raises all who are bowed low.

Life is yours forever, Mary,
for your light is come once more
and the strength of death is broken;
let your songs of joy outpour.
Ended is the night of sorrow,
as you gaze into his eyes.

Love has pierced the grip of darkness:
Let your alleluias rise!
