

2025 STUDENT CONTESTS

Pro-life Essay Contest

Grades 7-12 / Due by: 2-21-25
Grand Prize: $250

The Grand Prize Winner will read their essay on the Main Stage at the 3-15-25 Arizona March for Life!

This 500 word essay will express the student's pro-life views, and inspire others to make a stand for life.

Essay Topics (select one):

- (1) What can young people do to build a stronger culture of life, especially among their peers? What can you do to inspire others, and make your generation the one that makes abortion unthinkable?
- (2) Human life is inherently valuable and must be protected regardless of size, age, or dependency. Explore the importance of advocacy in the pro-life movement, and why protecting the unborn and most vulnerable is critical in a just and equitable society.
- (3) Why are you pro-life? What does being pro-life mean to you, and how are your pro-life beliefs visible in your everyday life?

* Entries must be new and personally written by the student. Students are eligible to win the Grand Prize twice.

Essay + Video Submissions:

Email entries (PDF, video, or link) to: Jill@ChooseLifeAZ.org. Please include: Student Name / Grade / School / Teacher / and Parent Contact Info.

Submissions may be featured on AZ Life Coalition or National March for Life media.

Pro-Life Video Contest

Grades 7-12 / Due by: 2-21-25
Grand Prize: $250

The Grand Prize winning video will be featured on Arizona Life Coalition's website, media and at events. The winner will receive their award on stage at the Arizona March for Life on 3-15-25.

Contest: Students are invited to create a pro-life video where they create the topic! This 2-3 minute video will express the student's pro-life views with a goal of inspiring peers to stand for LIFE.

* Students must submit a new entry each year, and are eligible to win the Grand Prize twice.
